TWO NECK-AND-NECK RACES

FEATURE OF ATLANTA CARD

Cox, Driving Princeton, Beats Murphy, Behind Mabel Track, in Exciting Contest.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 15.—Two neck and neck finishes featured the Grand Circuit races here today. One was the free for all trot, which was won in two straight heats by Princeton, driven by Cox, against Mabel Track, piloted by Murphy. In the other, a 2:12 trot, Murphy, driving Mabel Track, won over Cox, piloting Princeton. Only two heats were necessary also in this event, which was confined to three-year-olds.

The best time of the meeting so far was made today in the first heat of the 2:12 race, when Frank Dewey, driving Princeton, made the mile in 2:01 3/4. It finally took four heats for this horse to be declared the winner.

Time: 2:01 3/4, 2:02 1/4, 2:03 1/4, 2:04 1/4. Fourth race—mile and sixteenth—Hobbs, 107; Paddy Best, 108; Boxer, 109; Senator, 110; Ground, 111. Time: 1:57 1/2, 1:58 1/2, 1:59 1/2, 2:00 1/2, 2:01 1/2.

WASHINGTON AND LEE HAPPY OVER GENERALS' PROSPECTS

Football Enthusiasts Bubbling Over With Confidence Result of Tryouts.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LEXINGTON, Va., Oct. 15.—Followers of the Washington and Lee football team are fairly bubbling over with enthusiasm as a result of rapid tryouts made by the Generals in perfecting their machine.

The fact that Washington and Lee played through Davidson's line here last Saturday for a total of 250 yards, with Jim Matt and Stevens, two regular back field men, on the side lines seems to give ample reason to expect much from the Generals in the future.

The return of "Bullet Joe" Silverstein has given the back field great driving power and the shifting by head Coach Raftery of Daves from tackle to end, Lindsey Moore from guard to tackle and Sanford from tackle to guard has greatly strengthened the line. Coach Raftery is now bending every effort for speed, and the team will be driven to the limit on Wilson Field for the next two weeks.

PRINCETON LOSES CENTER

Murray Seuerman, Injured in Lafayette Game, Will Be Lost to Rest of Season.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 15.—Murray Seuerman, Princeton's varsity center, who was hurt in the game with Lafayette last Saturday, will be lost to the remainder of the season. It has been announced that Seuerman was injured while attempting to break up a Lafayette formation in Saturday's game. He was borne from the field on a stretcher and carried to the McCosh infirmary, where examination revealed a clean break of the leg.

Seuerman's injury will be a serious blow to Bill Roper, Seuerman started both the Trinity and Lafayette contests and has been the varsity's pivot position. Substitute material for the pivot position has been weak and the coaches now have a new problem on their hands.

Statistics compiled from Saturday's game show only one team could hold the Tigers outside their opponents. Lafayette and Trumble got away early and carried to the McCosh infirmary, where examination revealed a clean break of the leg.

Treasury of U. S. Is Paid $73,239 of Series Money

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Nearly as much money was paid to the United States in war tax as accrued to the Treasury in the last week of the series.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Nearly as much money was paid to the United States in war tax as accrued to the Treasury in the last week of the series. The Treasury received $73,239 of series money.

But from that amount, it is stated, it was necessary to deduct the expenses of erecting temporary stands, players' salaries, the cost of transporting the players from one city to the other and their home bills, leaving the clubs about the same amount as went to the government.

EAST FAILS TO PRODUCE HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION

Can Boast of No Leader in Division Since John L. Sullivan Held Crown.

East fails to produce heavyweight champion. Can boast of no leader in division since John L. Sullivan held crown.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—While the East has been extremely active in backsliding itself with championships in most lines of athletic endeavor it has been decidedly tardy in one. Not since the days when John L. Sullivan lastly sported the heavyweight crown on his pompadour has this section of the country boasted a leader in that division.

Starting his career in the old days of bare knuckle fighting, the East has graduated into the mode of Marquis of Queensberry boxing and lost his lead to James J. Corbett at New Orleans, September 2, 1892. For twenty-seven years the East has never been able to produce a heavyweight capable of winning the championship.

Following Sullivan upon the throne came James J. Corbett, who came from San Francisco. Bob Fitzsimmons, of Australia; James J. Jeffries, of Los Angeles; Marvin Hart, recognized successor to Jeffries when the latter announced his retirement from the ring, who hailed from Louisville; Jess Johnson, of Galveston, Texas; Jess Williams, of Kansas; and Jack Dempsey, whose home is now in Utah.

Thus have seven champions blazed the way along the heavy weight trail since it was last trod by a man claiming the East as his home. And at this time there is no eastern champion prospect doing business in the division.

In other boxing divisions this section of the country has not fared so badly. The champions of the world in this time three of them are from the East; in fact, all three are from New York. The former champions, divisions, champions and their homes: Bantamweight—Pete Herman, New Orleans.

Welterweight—Johnny Kilbane, Cleveland. Lightweight—Benny Leonard, New York. Featherweight—Jack Britton, New York.

Middleweight—Mike O'Dowd, St. Paul. Light heavyweight—Battling Levinson, New York. Heavyweight—Jack Dempsey, Salt Lake.

Some there may be who will take exception to including Jack Britton among those representing the East. He formerly made his home in Chicago, having started boxing while a newspaper reporter, but he has lived in this city and claims it as his home town.

Statistics compiled from Saturday's game show only one team could hold the Tigers outside their opponents. Lafayette and Trumble got away early and carried to the McCosh infirmary, where examination revealed a clean break of the leg.
